

Espace de l'Odyssée
44700 - ORVAULT

15th & 16th of March 2019

This event is organised by IdHEO
Nantes in conjunction with
Nantes University

MANAGEMENT OF CHRONIC PAIN :
EMERGING CONCEPTS AND MULTIDISCIPLINARITY

Conference Program

All conferences will be translated in English and French

FRIDAY 15th of MARCH 2019

8:15 - Registration

8:45 - Opening speech

9:00 - Perceptual binding and the emergence of a painful experience: a matter of coherence
Mr Marco GABUTTI - Osteopath - Granville

9:45 - Ouch, my back hurts !!! WTF ? A multidimensionnal clinical framework for pain
Mr Laurent FABRE - Osteopath - Paris

10:30 - Coffee break, posters

11:00 - Management of patients with central sensitisation: developing a multimodal strategy
Dr Jerry DRAPER-RODI - Osteopath, D.Prof(Ost), PG Cert, PG Dip - University College of Osteopathy

11:45 - More than just a number - The value of qualitative research in the osteopathic management of chronic pain
Dr Oliver THOMSON - Osteopath, PhD - University College of Osteopathy

12:30 - Lunch break, posters

14:00 - Managing and treating persistent back pain - the big picture
Mr Steve VOGEL - Osteopath - University College of Osteopathy

14:45 - Cognitive-behavioral therapy and low back pain
Dr Abdel-Halim BOUDOUKHA - Professor in Clinical and Pathological Psychology, HDR - University of Nantes
Dr Margaux LE BORGNE- Lecturer in Clinical and Pathological Psychology - University of Nantes

15:30 - Coffee break, posters

16:00 - Cognitive Functional Therapy – making sense out of back pain?
Dr Kjartan VIBE-FERSUM - Physiotherapist, Associate Professor - University of Bergen

16:45 – Chronic pelvic pain: classification and sensitisation concept
Dr Amélie LEVESQUE - MD, Algiatrist - Centre d'Évaluation et de Traitement de la Douleur de Nantes

17:30 - Discussion/debate with keynote speakers

18:15 - Cocktail-dinner

12th Osteopathic International Symposium of Nantes

Espace de l'Odyssée
44700 - ORVAULT

15th & 16th of March 2019

This event is organised by IdHEO
Nantes in conjunction with
Nantes University

SATURDAY 16th of MARCH 2019

8:15 - Registration

8:45 - The theories, evidence and outcomes from integrating mindfulness with osteopathic care for patients with chronic pain

Dr Hilary ABBEY - Osteopath, MSc, D.Prof(ost), FHEA - University College of Osteopathy

9:30 - Chronic pain and Ehlers-Danlos Syndromes

Dr Gilles MAZALTARINE - Osteopath, Physical Medicine and Readaptation – Clinique Brétéché, Nantes

10:15 - Coffee break, posters

10:45 - Complex regional pain syndrome and the concept of body matrix

Dr Alberto GALLACE, PhD - Associate Professor - Université de Milan-Bicocca

11:30 - Specificities of chronic pain in the elderly

Dr Yannick HUARD, Osteopath, PhD - Institut des Hautes Études Ostéopathiques de Nantes

12:15 - Closing speech - Poster award

12:30 - Lunch break

Afternoon - Workshops A to F at 14:00 and 16:00 (choose one for each hour)

Workshop A : Practical methods for integrating mindfulness and mindful movement practices with osteopathic treatment for patients with chronic pain

Dr Hilary ABBEY - DO, MSc, D.Prof(ost), FHEA - University College of Osteopathy

Workshop B : Effective language and communication in constructing helpful beliefs, experiences and behaviours in people with chronic back pain

Dr Oliver THOMSON - DO, PhD - University College of Osteopathy

Workshop C : Diagnostic reasoning when facing a radiating pain of the upper limb

M. Laurent FABRE - DO

Workshop D : Explaining pain to our patients, great... but how? Implementation of Pain Neuroscience Education in our clinic

Dr Jerry DRAPER-RODI - DO, D.Prof(ost) - University College of Osteopathy

Workshop E : Research – Short communications

Speakers selected by a call for abstracts (the speakers will be different at 14:00 and 16:00)

14:00 - Workshop n°1

15:30 - Coffee break

16:00 - Workshop n°2

17:30 - End of Symposium